

The body

The 1st paragraph (advantages):

Topic sentence:
computers have many advantages

First of all, we can communicate with people from different countries.

Besides, computers can help us to keep up with the latest news that happen in the world

In addition, people can entertain themselves. For example, they listen to music or play games in their free time

The 2nd paragraph (disadvantages):

Topic sentence:
Despite the benefits of technology; it got several points

To begin with, the fact that information has become accessible makes people dependent on the internet.

What is more, most people spend too much time in front of the computer. They neglect their work or studies. As a result, they become addicted

Moreover, some websites spread wrong ideas. People believe in these ideas.
